Runway left ruling still hanging Decision could start new battle

By DALE GOWING
Of The Roman Staff

When U.S. District Court Judge Cornelia G. Kennedy will hand down her ruling in the Detroit Metropolitan Airport runway expansion suit is anybody's guess, but when she does it is possible the decision will touch off another long legal battle, again involving Romulus.

Judge Kennedy has not set a date to release her decision of whether to grant a Romulus requested injunction against Wayne County for its construction of a new 10,000-foot runway at the airport or whether to throw out the lawsuit.

The 6-month court battle ended two weeks ago.

Thomas Richards, Judge Kennedy's court clerk, said the judge probably would make her decision known to both sides' attorneys by mail.

Much is at stake for the City of Romulus, the Romulus Community School District and plaintiffs in the injunction suit.

They sued the county, which owns the airport, for numerous reasons. Primary ones were the potential harm which they said could be done to residential areas and schools by low-flying aircraft using the new runway, and the alleged inaccurate Environmental Impact Statement, submitted to the Environmental Protection Agency by the county.

Granting of the injunction would mean at least a temporary halt to the runway's construction, with a later determination by Judge Kennedy on whether the program should be abandoned altogether.

'A legal victory would open the door ...'

But more than that, the legal victory for the Romulus factions would open the door to extensive damage suits to recover past losses allegedly brought on by the airport.

"What we're talking about is an inverse condemnation suit, because the damages already have occurred to the city, Harrison Elementary School and individual property owners," said

Romulus City Attorney William S. Munger.

"But when a suit to recover those damages would come about I don't think anyone knows. Well just have to wait and see how happy we are with the results of our present suit," he added.

In the wind is an $8.5 million damage suit to be initiated against the county.

Damages allegedly done to the city during the years by the airport include the facility's reportedly indiscriminate taking of city land to facilitate further airport expansion.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt said the city has numerous "dead end" roads caused by the "grabbing up" of land by the airport, regardless of its effect on the surrounding area.

Also charged by the city is its loss of debt retirement funds because of "unnecessary taking of land" by the airport, land which contained water and sewer pipes ready for residential use, Munger added.

Troutt has complained that the loss of revenue from those water and sewer hookups amounts to thousands of dollars.

The damage to Harrison School is not structural. According to school administrators, the problem is that learning cannot be achieved there because of the constant roar of aircraft.

The school is under a major departure path enroute from Metro.

The property owners, who got the "injunction ball" rolling last summer, claim they stand to lose everything. Although they say their property values are plummeting continually because of the low-flying aircraft, they added that they can't sell and get out because they would lose too much.

CUFA recipients plead for funding

Recipients of Communities United for Action (CUFA) services, including transportation, job referral and family planning, were scheduled to make a plea before Romulus City Council last night in a bid to obtain city funds to continue the public services here.

CUFA has announced its intentions to begin "phasing out" services in Romulus because the city has not agreed to allocate about $20,000. Eighty percent of CUFA's funding comes from the federal government.

CUFA began phasing out service Monday and will end it completely Feb. 21.

Executive Director Donald Wrench said the organization's annual budget for operation in Romulus is $114,965, with all but $19,393 paid by the federal government.

Wrench added that the sought-after allocation of $19,393 from Romulus would guarantee CUFA's operation in the city through June.

The attitude of officials in City Hall, however, is that the services provided by CUFA are not worth $19,393 to the city. Council President Beverly McAnally and Mayor Terry L. Troutt both have expressed such views.

Another point brought out by Mrs. McAnally is that the city did not know of the money request in time to fit it into the budget last spring.

CUFA officials, however, claim their requests were made well before the budget deadline, but were ignored by the council.

Wrench said CUFA in an average month serves more than 600 Romulus residents. About 380 individuals were served in the organization's Action Center on Beverly Road, where they can obtain counseling and other assistance.

He added that about 183 persons are given transportation in a typical month and another 110 receive family planning help.

Scheduled to confront City Council were several citizens who utilized CUFA services.

"I thought that instead of us (CUFA officials) going before the council again, that it would be best if we let the people we serve confront them," Wrench said.

Possible arson

Fire investigators still are looking into the possibility of arson in the fire and explosion that largely destroyed a warehouse in Romulus last week.

Chemical residue in the ruins has slowed down the investigation. See related story and photo on Page A-3. — The Romulus Roman photo.

Grant fund deadline less than 4 weeks off

Less than four weeks remain before Romulus must file an application with the federal government for $667,000 in Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) grant funds—money anticipated for the "face lifting" of rundown and blighted areas of the city.

A series of public hearings designed to obtain citizen opinion on how to spend the money have concluded and the city is working to meet its March 1 application deadline.

The $667,000, expected to come in to Romulus through the Community Development Block Grant Program, administered by HUD, will be portioned into five yearly installments. The first three installments will be about $150,000 each, officials hope. The final two would be $102,000 each.

A major part of the city's application must detail the expected uses of the money, and City Planner Dennis Meagher is handling a sizeable part of that workload.

"Basically, our office is investigating the housing needs in the city," Meagher said. The city planner's firm is Community Planning and Management of Utica.

"A housing assistance plan is required by HUD to be submitted with the city's application," he added.

In what Mayor Terry L. Troutt labeled a "comprehensive study," Meagher is attempting to determine the housing needs and submit an examination and analysis of those needs to the city.

36521 GODDARD ROAD

9am-9pm DAILY

CLOSED SUNDAY

HEADING HOME — Rolling up their hoses and boarding a pumper are these Romulus firemen, finally heading home after fighting a chemical fire for nine hours last week after which they remained several more hours to sift through the rubble of the destroyed warehouse at 30105

Investigation probes blaze in warehouses

Residue from the explosion of hundreds of aerosol cans containing chemicals is making it slow going for an investigation into the cause of a spectacular Romulus warehouse fire.

Arson has not been ruled out as a possible cause of the fire at 30105 Beverly Road, which did an estimated $185,000 damage to three businesses in the building last week.

Sgt. Don Schorffhaar of the Flat Rock Post of the State Fire Investigation Bureau, said investigators "still have a lot of things to check" at the scene of the blaze.

"At every fire, there's a list of about 40 things we have to check out to help determine what started the fire," Schorffhaar said. "The Crest Co. had a lot of aerosol cans that exploded, making it difficult to investigate. 'Arson? That's always a possibility.'"

The company Schorffhaar referred to in connection with the aerosol cans is Crest Chemicals, which shared the warehouse with two other firms — Crown Furniture and Astro Freight Co. All the firms reportedly were insured, but the amounts of the insurance were not available.

No one was injured in the fire, which raged nine hours before firemen from Romulus and Taylor could extinguish it.

The chemicals in the Crest firm reportedly were window-cleaning substances and highly flammable.

Fire fighters at the scene said the explosion caused by the chemicals caused a roof to collapse during the fire.

In ending delays

Tickets force railroad to act

A bit of indirect city pressure has convinced the Norfolk and Western (N&W) Railroad that it finally should take action to eliminate frequent blockages of street crossings in Romulus.

Police Chief Jacob Koch, acting on orders from Mayor Terry L. Troutt, issued five violation tickets to N&W during a 7-day period in late January, allegedly for blocking the Shook Road and Romaine Street crossings for more than the legal five minutes.

According to Koch, trains in the past have frequently blocked both crossings for periods of up to 15 minutes, causing inconveniences for motorists and school buses.

Because the crossings are two of three that provide access to a residential area in the west-central portion of the city, the simultaneous blocking of the two was considered serious.

Koch added that the Shook and Romaine crossings are only "blocks" away from each other, so a train passing one crossing usually causes the closing of the other.

Legally, moving or stationary trains may not block a crossing for more than five minutes. Koch said he even stretches that to six or 7 minutes.

"But it's the ones that hold up traffic 10 or 15 minutes that we ticketed," he said.

Koch said a total of "eight or 10" tickets have been issued in all.

Even when a train is not blocking one of the two crossings, but is between them, the gates are activated automatically, he added.

"Sometimes a train will get between the two crossings and stop, and the men go and eat lunch, leaving the gates down on Shook and Romaine," he said.

The ticketing has prompted N&W to activate earlier plans to rewire the circuitry that causes the gates to remain lowered even when a train has passed.

N&W also is installing crossing mechanisms at the third crossing in the vicinity at Ozga Road.

Judge weighs dispute

A motion to dismiss a lawsuit, seeking to prevent the elimination or reduction of Wayne County Sheriff's Department Road Patrol services to out-county townships by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, has been taken under advisement by Wayne Circuit Court Judge Thomas J. Foley.

Arguments on the motion, filed by the county Board of Commissioners, were presented in court last Thursday.

The Wayne County Sheriffs Association, which was represented at the hearing, was allowed by the court to file briefs within two weeks supporting the association's position in the Road Patrol dispute.

The Board of Commissioners, in presenting its motion to dismiss, contended that the court has no jurisdiction over the matter.

The lawsuit was filed by Detroit attorney Louis Wechsler on behalf of seven Western Wayne County townships.

The court also permitted the townships to file an amended bill of complaint in their lawsuit to argue not only that the sheriff legally is required to provide police protection, but also at whatever reasonable level required for public safety. Last spring the County board threatened to terminate the patrol.

Under pressure from the townships, the board instead reduced funding for the road patrol operation by 25 percent.

The townships currently are contending that service barely is adequate at present and any reduction would pose a serious threat to the safety of their residents.

Several temporary extensions of full funding for the patrols have been granted to the townships. The most recent was a 90-day extension, beginning Feb. 1.

The 28-member Road Patrol, which covers the out-county area on a 24-hour basis, seven days a week, is the primary law enforcement agency for that entire area.

The Roman appoints two department heads

Bringing with them many years of experience in the newspaper business, Andy Hodge and Bill McNeight are the newest additions to The Romulus Roman management staff.

Hodge recently was promoted to production manager and McNeight has assumed the duties of circulation manager, replacing Dean Thurmond, who was transferred to another Panax Corp. newspaper.

A Panax owned newspaper, The Roman is part of Associated Newspapers which also publishes The Daily Eagle, The Garden City Eagle, The Belleville Enterprise and The Canton Eagle.

In announcing the new appointments, Associated Newspapers' General Manager John G. Tarrant said: "Mr. Hodge has been acting production manager for the past few months and has made some very important contributions toward the overall improvement of our production processes. He has a fine background in the newspaper business and his variety of experience will be especially helpful."

"Mr. McNeight's experience in the area of circulation sales and his special interest in circulation promotion will be of great help to us here at Associated Newspapers and will enable us to serve our subscribers in a better, more efficient manner," the general manager added.

Hodge, 28, assumed the duties of acting production manager in October. He had been employed with Associated since July as a salesman, and before that worked for other Panax newspapers, including the Miami Beach Times in Florida and two Michigan newspapers — The Alma Record Leader and The Mt. Pleasant Times-News.

The new production manager will be responsible for both the composition department and the press room at Associated.

He and his wife, Mary Lou, and their two sons — Chris, 6, and Tim, 4 — live in Belleville.

McNeight, 28, was a dealer-distributor for The Macomb Daily, another Panax newspaper, before coming to Associated this week.

He began his newspaper career in 1966 as a district circulation manager for a Utica daily newspaper, and later assumed the duties of promotion manager.

ANDY HODGE

McNeight served two years in the Army. He and his wife, Kathy, and their three children — Jerry, 5; Jackie, 4; and Christine, 2 — live in Sterling Heights.

Non-smokers to get rights, yet

A recently organized group of citizens who has suffered silently for years is making waves in Lansing which should produce legislative action before the year is out.

These people always have been in the majority. But they quietly have suffered through watery eyes, severe headaches, coughing, congested sinuses and lungs and in some cases increased illness caused by another group of people.

The newly organized majority represents the non-smokers of the state and the people who have been causing them all the health difficulties are smokers.

It's been 11 years since the U.S. surgeon general released his report linking cigarette smoking directly to cancer and other diseases. That report dealt only with the effect of smoking on smokers, however. It has been known smoking was harmful.

But in recent years health research has shown non-smokers who are exposed to the smoke from other people's cigarettes, cigars or pipes also suffer damage to their health. People who suffered silently have become vocal to protect their own health.

Studies have shown the average cigarette burns about 12 minutes and the average smoker takes eight or nine puffs lasting about 24 seconds. The remainder of the time the cigarette just sits there giving off smoke — smoke which new research shows gives off a great deal more harmful compounds than the smoke inhaled by the smoker.

This "sidestream" smoke contains twice as much tar and nicotine as the smoke drawn through the cigarette and three times as much of a compound called 3-4 benzpyrene, a suspected cancer causing agent.

It contains five times as much carbon monoxide as smoke drawn through the cigarette and 50 times as much ammonia. There also is evidence that "sidestream" smoke contains more cadmium than that inhaled by the smoker. Cadmium is under investigation as one of the compounds in cigarette smoke that damages the air sacs of the lungs and causes emphysema.

A study of children in families with smoking and nonsmoking parents shows the children in the home with smoking parents average twice the respiratory illnesses as children with nonsmoking parents.

This, along with much more information, has instilled a new militancy among nonsmokers.

It was one thing when it was thought that the only ones smokers were hurting were themselves. But it is another thing when they are hurting you.

Gov. William G. Milliken, a nonsmoker, mentioned the problem in his State of the State address to the Legislature.

State Health Director Maurice Reizen strongly is in support of the movement. Several legislators already have introduced legislation to curb smoking in different ways.

And all of this is being conducted under the slogan "Nonsmokers have rights, too." A move we strongly support.

Sometimes he wonders

Can Americans appreciate offerings of past?

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of the Enterprise-Roman Staff

There are some who say that America still is seeking its culture. And at times I tend to agree.

When I watch the "Overture of 1812" used to sell cereal and the Mona Lisa used to adorn ads for underwear, I cringe.

Where will America find its own culture if it can't appreciate offerings of the past? In paintings of soup can labels blown up to "super graphics?"

I'm afraid the country is suffering from the glut of tasteless commercialism which is designed to catch the reader's or watcher's eye or fancy, but which works counter to those in their formative years who should learn to appreciate the bit of culture for what it signifies rather than for the thought it represents in a cereal ad.

Or does he laugh back at the Mona Lisa when he remembers underwear?

And who listening to the commercial for the cereal shot from guns knows that the music was written by Tchaikovsky as a tribute to the Russian armies which defeated Napoleon during his advance into the country? Do they know that the same strategy used by the Russians during Napoleon's campaign were dusted off and used in 1941 when Hitler invaded the country? Do they know that the Mona Lisa, besides adorning commercials, is among the best known works of Leonardo da Vinci — one of the best minds working during the Italian Renaissance?

It isn't that poking fun at something sacred always is wrong, but that poking fun at another's culture deprives our young ones of enjoying that piece of culture as it is meant to be enjoyed.

Will a youngster be able to control the giggles as he thinks of the oats pouring from cannons during Tchaikovsky's work? Or does he laugh back at the Mona Lisa when he remembers underwear?

Maybe it's because we poke fun at the signs of another's culture that the depths of American culture include a Hank Aaron home run, mimics of comic strips on large canvases and jokes many don't understand on "All In The Family."

And maybe that's why American children say that history is not valuable to them—that what's happening is now.

We should learn from our triumphs and mistakes of the past—triumphs and mistakes our artists attempt to keep in our minds by their works.

We must recover confidence

There are strong indications that we have lived through the worst of the inflation spiral.

What we need now more than anything else is a recovery of public confidence in our ability to lick it.

Give ourselves confidence and there are few hardships the people of this country wouldn't be willing to endure—and precious little we could not achieve.

We in the business community have much to contribute—by continuing to act prudently and with a strong commitment to the ideal of sound product value; by standing behind our products and services without equivocation; by investing in increased productivity and product improvement; by eliminating waste, and by selling as hard as we know how.

Above all we need a positive attitude and a national dedication to increased productivity.

Here we have a critical job for both management and labor. All our experience teaches us that productivity can be achieved only in a climate of understanding, and with the cooperation of labor.

It is not a matter of making employees work harder, but rather of investing in the tools, equipment, and facilities which can increase each individual's effectiveness in his work. This requires the cooperation of labor leaders and management in eliminating the work practices and rules which hinder productivity improvement and add unnecessarily to cost.

Government, too, can assist both by minimizing regulation and improving incentives. In this regard, we look forward to the proposed increase in the investment tax credit.

DISCOURTESY

You're bound to find it on the road

By STAN OPOTOWSKY
Enterprise-Roman Special Columnist

There are signs around the country which proclaim, "If you want courtesy from other motorists, drive a police car."

No one can tell how much discourtesy costs in the toll of bent fenders and smashed bumpers. But there is something which converts a simpering milquetoast into a snarling monster when he gets behind the wheel of a car.

Just think of the times you've been trying to wiggle into a line of cars. One after another edges tightly against the guy in front of him to squeeze you out. Eventually someone will let you in, but you must wait a while.

Why? The guy who lets you in is delayed from no more than two seconds. Who can be in that much of a hurry that those two seconds are fatal?

The doctors say these aggressive drivers are working out their frustrations. The doctors also say the aggressive drivers are begging for heart attacks.

And traffic experts say that even in massive jams the guy cutting in front of one car, squeezing out the next and generally making himself obnoxious (and dangerous) saves less than a minute on a 5-mile drive.

Driving styles differ in various parts of the country. And a lot of it is not based on need.

In the crowded cities of the east, for example, those who commute daily by car and have reason to be most frustrated by the jams actually are more inclined to be courteous and relaxed than an inexperienced driver who only occasionally gets caught in the tieups.

Why? Probably because the experienced driver has learned the folly of fighting his way through the traffic and thus relaxes and endures it with complacency, realizing that all things (even this) come to an end.

There are some people who feel the whole thing is hopeless.

But it might be worthwhile to preach a little courtesy, to hope that at least a few people, when they pause to think, will realize that letting the other fellow into line might help him a bit and yet hurt someone else not a whit.

Attack leaves Simon stronger

By TOM BRADEN
Enterprise-Roman Special Columnist

The attack on William Simon which flared last week appears to have left the treasury secretary in a stronger position than before. Gerald Ford has reminded him of enduring friendship; Secretary of State Henry Kissinger has telephoned his congratulations; conservative congressmen and senators have called or written to affirm their support. But the attack also has turned up a mystery.

The mystery is whether or not Gerald Ford played a role. Donald Rumsfeld, Ford's chief of staff, denies this flatly. A behind-the-scenes operation, Rumsfeld said it is not Gerald Ford's way of doing things.

If the President wants a man to leave, the President tells him so, he added.

On the other hand, it is hard to believe that two of Mr. Ford's top assistants would conduct the operation against Simon without the President's knowledge and tacit or expressed approval.

The anti-Simon campaign was conducted by Budget Director Roy Ash and presidential aide Robert Hartmann. Both men had reason.

Hartmann has long held that the best way for Gerald Ford to create a new Presidency is to get rid of the Nixon holdovers, and Simon's tendency to speak out made him prominent among these.

Then, too, on the old baseball principle, the best way to get out of a slump or to let the fans know you're trying is to sack the manager. Hartmann thought Simon's departure would be good politics for Gerald Ford.

Ash, on the other hand, is a longtime Simon foe. He thought he had been promised the Treasury post at the time George Shultz stepped down and he complained to Nixon when Simon got the job. Before that, he had sought the federal energy post, and this also went to Simon.

So Hartmann and Ash let it be known to journalists that Simon was on the way out, and a spate of stories to that effect followed immediately. Did they confer with the President? If so, he backed off rapidly when Simon failed to take the hint.

Simon read the first stories about his forthcoming resignation while he was in his office, and his immediate instinct was to fight. He first conferred with congressional supporters, then telephoned Rumsfeld and asked for an appointment with Ford.

A Ford-Simon meeting at which others would be present was already on the schedule and, when it was over, Mr. Ford asked Simon to remain behind.

There and then, according to Simon, the President pledged his firm support and asked Simon to stay on. Simon said he intends to do so.

With lecture, discussion

District begins child care series

The Romulus School District will begin a new free lecture-discussion series on child rearing and educational problems at 1 p.m. today.

The lecture-discussion series, approved by the Romulus Board of Education, will cover all aspects of child growth and development and will be conducted at the school district's central offices located at 36540 Grant Road in Romulus.

The 2-hour sessions, to be held on the first Wednesdays of the next five months starting today, will be under the supervision of Sam Olive, school district psychologist.

The proposed list of presentations includes: early child development and growth, personality development and growth, early educational development (readiness skills), behavioral problems and language development and remediation, Olive said.

"Today's highly mobile and technical society is placing more stress and demands on parents," he continued. "More than ever parents need to develop adequate coping methods and understanding of their children.

"By providing an opportunity to gain insights into child rearing practices, child development, human learning and related matters, parents will come to understand their children better and deal with them more effectively."

The sessions will last approximately two hours. The first hour will be devoted to a formal presentation. The second hour will be allowed for a general discussion and if time allows, small groups will be formed and the individuals presenting will circulate to answer more specific individual questions, Olive added.

"Hopefully, by providing an opportunity for parents to gather information, voice their opinions and discuss their needs, the results will have a beneficial effect on their children," he said.

Trustees outline plans for spending $66,000

A program for spending $66,000 in 1974-75 federal revenue sharing funds and the initiation of a planned $1 million water line extension program in Sumpter Township have received the go-ahead signal from the Sumpter Township Board of Trustees.

On a motion made by Trustee Cecil Hall, the township board approved expending the $66,000 in revenue sharing funds as follows: $20,000 for the township Police Department and salaries, $18,000 for the township Fire Department and salaries, $5,000 to the township's library fund, $8,000 toward the township's rubbish collection program and $15,000 for a township animal shelter and for the purchase of its land site.

The township board also directed Henry Andres of Wade, Trim & Associates of Taylor, an engineering consulting firm, to begin drawing up plans for the construction of the township's $1 million program for extensions of future water lines.

In other matters recently considered, the township trustees approved the purchase of new communications equipment for the township Fire Department at a cost of $5,723.75 which will be paid for out of revenue-sharing funds.

— Accepted a settlement agreed upon between the park owners and the township trustees for past water bills owed the township by Holiday Woods, Holiday West and Rawsonville Woods Mobile Home Parks.

There's never been a better time to buy a new car than right now. Here's why.

1. 1975 cars generally offer better fuel economy than 1971, 1972 or 1973 cars.
2. New maintenance schedules can save you hundreds of dollars. Spark plug life is longer. So are lubrication and oil change intervals.
3. Many important features you once paid extra for as options now come standard in the new '75 cars.
4. In many ways, it's what you can't see "under the skin" — quality, durability, engineering improvements — that make a '75 car a value-holding investment for the future.
5. 42-month installment plans, where available, can reduce your monthly payments.
6. The average monthly auto loan interest charge is only $3 more than it was six years ago.

7. New car price percentage increases are less than upturns in cost of food, clothing and even your local movie theater.
8. The cost of a new car now takes less from today's paycheck than it did 10 years ago. Then it took the median wage earner 5.1 months to earn the price of a base four-door car. Today, he can earn a four-door car in 4.4 months.
9. During the last few months the increase in resale value of used cars has been high enough, in many cases, to offset completely the new '75 price increases. In effect, used car prices may never be higher and the cost to trade may never be lower.
10. It all adds up to a lot for your dollar at a time when you probably need a new car — and the nation's economy needs your vote of confidence.

Try a resolution of good breakfast

One of your best resolutions for 1975 could be to send your family off to work and to school with a high-protein meal. Protein foods at breakfast promote greater efficiency and give a sense of well being, not only in the morning but throughout the day. Since breakfast boredom may account for more breakfast skipping than is believed, serve different entrees.

Variety is the answer and it's up to the "cook" to provide it. In addition to the usual bacon and sausage, serve scrambled eggs, including thin frankfurter slices, panfried slices of ham and luncheon meat, smoked sausage links and Canadian style bacon.

New sons added to families in Belleville, Romulus areas

"My three sons" seems to be the theme around the Noah P. Bergeron Jr. home these mid-winter days. The Bergerons, who reside at 35060 Michele in Romulus, welcomed their third son Jan. 27 at Oakwood Hospital in Dearborn. The 7 lb. - 8 oz. newcomer was titled Robert Eric and is the new playmate of Noah P. III, who's four, and Michael John who's two. The children's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Ryznar and the senior Noah P. Bergerons, all of Romulus. Their great-grandparents, who reside in Taylor, are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bergeron and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Granz.

There's a new sound being heard out at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. N. Leonard Gorzynski of 45274 Willis Rd., Belleville, — that of their new son who arrived Jan. 9. The baby, their first child, weighed in at a wee 3 lbs. - 13 oz. on arrival at Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti.

Gas use drop reduces road funds

Michigan motorists used 4.7 percent fewer gallons of gasoline in 1974 than in 1973 and highway funds suffered an $18.5 million revenue loss, according to the County Road Association of Michigan.

The decline in road funds based on gasoline taxes already is cutting maintenance and construction programs and Earl F. Rogers, engineer-director for the association, warned that state and local highway agencies face "catastrophe" if federal plans for forced fuel conservation go into effect.

"Unless alternative financing is found, pending federal proposals to cut gasoline use sharply will reduce state gas tax revenues with catastrophic results for governmental units responsible for roads and streets," Rogers said.

Data compiled by the County Road Association show that state motorists used 206 million fewer gallons of gasoline in 1974 than in 1973. Gas sales totaled 4.1 billion gallons last year compared with 4.3 billion for the prior year.

Gasoline sales to car and truck owners in December dropped to only 337 million gallons, the lowest in seven months. This was 4.9 percent below the same month in 1973.

March proved to be the poorest month for gasoline use in 1974 when sales dropped to 292 million gallons. However, April showed the biggest percentage drop of 12.2 percent compared with the same month in the prior year.

In every month of 1974, gasoline usage was down from the comparable period a year earlier.

"No one disputes the need for oil conservation at the federal level," Rogers continued. "However, the effect of any conservation program will severely reduce gasoline use and that in turn will drastically cut revenue from the state's gasoline tax."

Gasoline taxes form the principal revenue source to finance state, county and municipal road and street systems.

"Already many counties have been forced to reduce maintenance and construction programs because of dwindling gas tax funds in 1974," Rogers added. Some agencies have cut back snowplowing and ice removal work, raising fears that some rural routes may not be adequate even for emergency travel.

Horsemen elect new officers

The Romulus Horseman's Association has elected a new slate of officers.

The association's new president is Charlotte McBride of 6345 Cordell St. in Romulus.

Other officers elected at the recent annual meeting of the association were: Joan Benvenuto, vice-president; Barbara Schultz, secretary; and Denise McMillan, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were Herb Allen, Linda Stewart and Al Locke.

The annual meeting closed with Noreen DePalmer showed training films of her 2-year-old gray half-Arabian, Ansata's Shy-Tone.

It also was reported that Nancy Muck Varhol of the Rocking M Ranch of Dexter will be the guest speaker at the association's Feb. 19 meeting. She will speak on the training of the horse.

Mrs. Varhol, a graduate of Romulus schools and former teacher at Romulus Senior High School, currently is managing the Rocking M Ranch which boards and raises Morgan and Arabian horses.

Her talk will include a demonstration of various training devices and an answer session from the floor.

The program is free and open to all interested horsemen and will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Room located in Romulus City Hall, 11111 S. Wayne Road.

More than 20 horses and riders participated in the association's recent "Blizzard Trail Ride."

Although there was no blizzard on the day of the event, the riders met at the home of Dennis and Jackie Kelly on Hannan Road in Romulus, to test their determination to ride against sub-freezing temperatures.

After a 2-hour ride, the group returned to the Kelly home for hot chocolate and donuts.

VB employees vote to unionize

Van Buren Township employees have voted to affiliate with the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) in an election supervised by the Michigan Employment Relations Commission. The results of the vote held at the Township Hall last Thursday were 18 votes in favor of union representation and 10 votes against.

The petition seeking to be sole bargaining agent for township employees was filed Nov. 14 by Council 23 of AFSCME. It was the first move by any union in township history to organize employees.

Excluded from participating in the election were elected officials, department heads, confidential employees and professional workers.

Voting in the election were clerical workers, Water Department employees, operators, truck drivers, mechanics, maintenance workers and the township dog warden.

Following the election of officers for the township chapter of Council 23, union officials will request a contract negotiation meeting with administration officials.

Public to hear auto lot zoning

The Van Buren Township Planning Commission will hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. today on a proposed amendment to the township's zoning ordinance to permit the construction of a Chevrolet dealership.

acre land parcel located on the north side of the North Service Drive of I-94 south of Dewitt Road.

The land site presently is zoned residential. A change to extensive highway business classification is being considered by the Planning Commission.

Auto dealers all jump on rebate bandwagon

The last part of January saw a general rush to rebates in the automotive industry and many related businesses in a mass effort to spark an upturn in the ailing economy.

Chrysler dealers throughout the country turned to a variety of eye-catching gimmicks in working to attract customers to showrooms, adding even further incentive to the automaker's rebate program.

Besides offering customer rebates ranging from $200 to $500 on all of its subcompact and compact models in the United States, General Motors (GM) also announced a 1975 car rebate program for all of its more than 500,000 hourly and salaried employees in the country.

GM employees are eligible for rebates of $100 on all new 1975 vehicles except those included in the customer rebate program.

Ford Motor Co. also offered an employee rebate program, in addition to the customer rebate program offered several weeks earlier by the company.

American Motors set apart its rebate program by offering customers the option either of a cash rebate or a combination of the company's extended Buyer Protection Program (valued at $99) and the balance in cash.

Other rebate programs related to the automakers' campaigns included a $50 rebate offer announced by the Detroit Federal Employees Credit Union for members who buy a new car by Feb. 28; a two percent cash bonus program offered by the Co-Op Services Credit Union, effective through April 30; and a $100 bonus to employees who buy a new car before the end of February, offered by Dayton Tire and Rubber Co. of Oklahoma City.

Harold Dietrich of Westland got into the rebate swing by becoming one of the first dealers in the area to offer a $100 cash rebate on the purchase of any used car. The program, offered in mid-January, expired today.

Ford Motor Co., predicting an upturn in the depressed auto market this spring, says it plans to recall thousands of laid-off workers beginning in March.

Vice-president Robert J. Hampson said company layoffs, now totaling 77,675 of Ford's 176,000 hourly workers, have peaked.

"I hope that by March and April we will see some recall of people on indefinite layoff and then a gradual improvement in the spring," he said last week.

Car sales in mid-January were up 41 percent from the poor levels of early January, and auto executives attributed the gain in part to rebates, offered as a sales stimulant.

GM President E. M. Estes says his company does not plan to have any employees on its temporary layoff list after March 31.

Some 41,000 GM autoworkers are in line for temporary layoffs between now and that date. Estes said most of these workers should be back on the job by April 1.

Democrats pick Owen for majority whip post

The state representative from Michigan's 22nd District, Gary M. Owen (D-Ypsilanti), has been selected as majority whip for the 1975-76 session of the Michigan House of Representatives.

He was elected to the post by the 66-member House Democratic Caucus.

It is the responsibility of party whips to see that members are on the floor for important votes and that they know the party position on those votes.

Whips essentially are attendance officers who see to it that no important piece of legislation is considered unless members of their party are present to participate in the voting.

"I feel very honored by this vote of esteem and confidence by my Democrat colleagues in the House," Owen said. "It will be a challenging new responsibility."

Owen is beginning his second term in the House. In addition to serving as majority whip, he is member of the House Appropriations Committee, considered the top committee assignment in the House.

Owen represents the 22nd District which includes the Ypsilanti and Belleville, Ypsilanti Township and Van Buren Township and part of Romulus.

A former Ypsilanti Township trustee and an Army veteran, he holds degrees from Washtenaw Community College and the University of Michigan.

Mare gives birth

The long-awaited news on the birth of a colt by a prize-winning 12-year-old grade mare has ended.

The condition of the mare has been the daily concern of friends and neighbors of Diane Clemens of 10534 Jackson St., Belleville, the owner of the horse.

Miss Clemens announced this week that her mare, named "Vel Dia Gee," gave birth to a "beautiful" filly on Jan. 27.

The filly was perfect in every way, except she was born with no pupils in her eyes, according to Miss Clemens.

Dr. Steve Rymall, an area veterinarian, advised the owner to take the little filly to Lansing where further checks on the colt were undertaken. Later Dr. Rymall put it to sleep.

Vel Dia Gee has won 72 ribbons in her class during horse show competition including 4-H horse shows in the states of Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

The ribbons were all won in 1972, according to Jean Clemens, Diane's mother. Mrs. Clemens is employed as a school bus driver for the Van Buren School District.

Welding equipment is stolen

A breakin and theft of some welding equipment from Belleville's South Junior High School is under investigation this week by Belleville police.

The breakin at the school's auto shop was discovered Monday morning by the school custodian. Entry was made by breaking a door panel leading into the shop.

Police Sgt. Willard Dockter said the welding equipment is valued at about $300.

Belleville man named to administrative post

A Belleville resident has been appointed assistant superintendent of Detroit Edison's Wayne Transmission and Distribution Division.

Glenn C. Lehman of Belleville now will be responsible for the construction, maintenance and operation of overhead and underground line facilities in Western Wayne and Monroe counties.

Lehman graduated from Brighton High School in 1943 and attended the University of Detroit.

He started with Detroit Edison as a member of an overhead line crew in 1946 and rose through a series of assignments including lineman and crew foreman to become foreman of the company's Ann Arbor Transmission and Distribution Division, a post he had held since 1971.

Van Buren gets park ordinance

Van Buren Township now has its first formal park ordinance.

The new law, which sets up rules and regulations flexible enough to suit the varying needs of different facilities as well as providing enforcement capabilities, unanimously was approved by the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

The Van Buren Township Parks and Recreation Commission previously had approved the new ordinance and recommended its adoption by the township trustees.

The park ordinance was prepared and written by Philip Rice, township attorney; and Jeffery G. Clark, director of the township's Parks and Recreation Department, in preparation for next season's operation of Van Buren Park, a 101-acre recreational site owned by the township on the north shore of Belleville Lake.

The ordinance regulates the management, maintenance, operation and control of public parks within and without the limits of the township, provides rules and regulations and sets forth standards of conduct.

Violations of the provisions of the park ordinance carry a penalty of a fine not to exceed $100 and or a jail term up to 90 days plus court costs. The new park law becomes effective 30 days after publication today.

Cagers' best year in league

Belleville clinches season

No matter what happens in their final five Suburban 8 Conference basketball games, Belleville cagers and Coach Tom Niemi have assured themselves of at least a 500 league finish. And that hasn't occurred in these parts for some time. Belleville pounded Edsel Ford 83-75 Friday night and that win provided Belleville with a 7-2 league record, good enough for a second place tie with Dearborn. THE TIGERS were to play league-leading (8-1) Plymouth Salem Tuesday and, if Niemi's minions settled the issue in their favor, then they would have a slice of first place. That confrontation almost became secondary as a sharpshooting Edsel Ford nearly stopped the streaking Belleville cage machine which has won six out of its last seven games. "We're lucky to get out of there with a victory," said Niemi, referring to Edsel

Enterprise Roman Sports

A PANAX PUBLICATION Wednesday, February 5, 1975 Page B-7

Ford. "Edsel had also won four in a row and they were really hot. In fact, in the third period they hit something like 10 out of 12 from the field." EDSEL took command in the first period 18-15, but the Tigers, ignited by Ernie Thonsbury and Tom Turner, who came off the bench in the second period and scored six points, took over at the half 39-29.

Edsel opened up the third period with a barrage of direct hits that helped them outscore the visiting Tigers 26-19 which turned it into a 58-55 duel in Belleville's favor.

Walt Easley and Mel Abraham put on a foul-shooting display which ended in the two Belleville cagers collecting seven of eight at the line. That, plus Thonsbury's excellent all-around contribution gave the Tigers a 25-20 scoring edge in the last eight minutes and the victory.

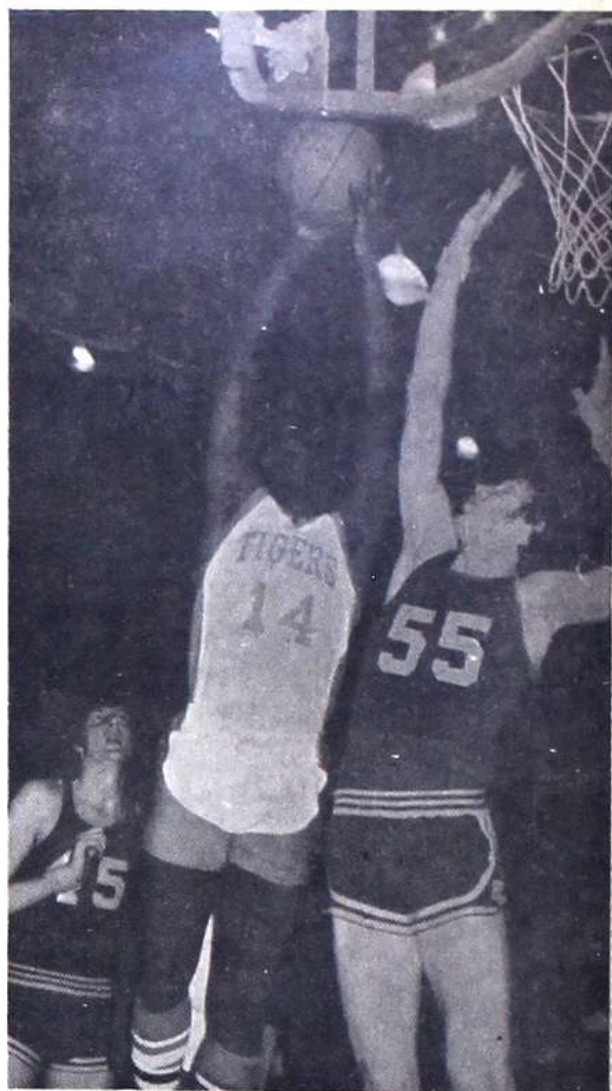

FOUR OF the five Belleville starters contributed double figures. Thonsbury had the team high of 20 points and a share of the game high. Edsel's Steve Betz and Dan Tarrant also scored 20 points.

The Easley brothers - Walt and Dennis - picked up 17 and 16 points, respectively, while Abraham finished the game with 10.

Niemi's Tigers need to brush up at the free throw line, though, for they canned but 17 of 30 offerings. The T-Birds didn't fare much better as they made 13 of 22.

Belleville capitalized on 33 of 72 shots from the field for a hefty 46 percent, but Edsel realized 31 of 61 which gave them 51 percent. It was the rebounding that really turned the tide for the Tigers. They picked off 41 as compared to 27 for the Tigers.

DENNIS 'THE MENACE' — That's what rivals probably are tagging Belleville's Dennis Easley (14) who has an uncanny way of being at the right spot for rebounds and under the basket layups as shown here against Redford Union. Dennis scored 28 points last Tuesday against Romulus and came back for 16 more against Edsel Ford Friday night to help the Tigers win their fourth consecutive game. Coach Tom Niemi's Tigers, after a Tuesday night showdown with Plymouth Salem for first place, will travel to Livonia Bentley for their second encounter of the Suburban 8 campaign.

Tribute to Coach McNally

By TOM MOORADIAN

When controversy and dissension strike an athletic team, one usually sees a decline in the team's over-all performance. It takes a strong character to tie up the loose strings, lick the wounds and keep the team working together as a unit.

Dick McNally, Cherry Hill's head basketball coach, is such a man. It was no secret to area high school fans and coach that with 6-foot-6 senior Bob Fowler in McNally's lineup, the Spartans coach had one of the strongest teams in the area.

When Fowler was injured and hobbled off the court at Southgate a few weeks ago, it looked like "The End" for Cherry Hill's title aspirations.

THAT WAS CONFIRMED in their next game when Cherry Hill lost to the then winless Schafer quintet and further proof was offered the following game when the Spartans dropped a key game to Melvindale, the present Tri-River Conference leader.

McNally tried to patch up the holes left by Fowler, but the gap widened even more when 6-foot-4 center Mike Moore failed to show up for an early morning practice and was benched.

Moore retaliated and transferred to Inkster High. Everyone was ready to sound the knell for the Spartans. And it looked bleak, very bleak for a team which is the only team to beat Westland John Glenn this season. The Westlanders are 14-1 on the year.

But, things began to brighten for McNally. Fowler's injury, first considered a chipped bone in his ankle, turned out to be a serve sprain; and Terry Cook, a seldom double-figure scorer, has come alive; and the rest of the team has become just that - a team.

"I THINK THAT'S where the difference lies," said McNally, "we're a team now and our attitude has changed. You can actually feel the difference."

"Our boys are playing defense with more zest than I have ever seen them, and any coach will tell you that's the toughest thing for a coach to do - to get his team to play defense."

"I feel what ever has happened in the past few weeks has helped us to mature as a team."

No one will argue that point.

Cherry Hill is very much alive in the conference title race. It is presently seated in second place tied with Garden City West (7-2). And the Spartans still have a score to settle with Melvindale (8-1), which holds down first place.

The Spartans have a 12-3 won-lost record.

And I don't see them losing another game during the regular season.

So, look for co-champs to emerge from the Tri-River Conference this season. It'll be up to Garden City West and Melvindale to determine who'll share the other half of the title.

Tigers 'purr-fect'

Belleville, which beat Plymouth Salem by one point in swimming last year, left little doubt Thursday which had the better team this season. Coach Sam Vicchy's Tigers shattered the Rocks 49-33 to remain undefeated in Suburban 8 Conference dual meet competition.

Vicchy doesn't have any conference title aspirations, despite his team's undefeated record. That is, not now.

"DEARBORN has a real strong team again this year and realistically speaking, we would need a miracle to beat them this season," said the Tiger mentor. "But, I feel we are closing the gap between us and the Dearborn schools."

"And I feel it won't be long when we will have a serious contender," said Vicchy.

Dearborn is also the defending class A state champ.

Belleville garnered seven of the 11 first places against Plymouth, two of those were contributions by Mark Stoelton. Stoelton turned in a 23.6 in winning the 50-yard freestyle. He also had a 52.6 which was good enough to win the 100-yard freestyle. "I really think the schedule has been in our favor this year," said Vicchy whose Tigers have amassed a 9-1 over-all record on the season.

Trenton matmen end Belleville's wrestling streak

Belleville's four meet winning streak in the Suburban 8 Conference was snapped by Trenton last Thursday.

And it was a tough one for Tiger Coach Gerald Malacek to stomach.

The meet, tied up at 21-all going into the final weight, was decided when Trenton's John Szymanski managed to toss Belleville's Bill Derryberry 7-1 for the decisive three points and a 24-21 victory.

"IT WAS a tough one for us to lose," said Malacek whose team is now 4-1 in the league.

"I feel that if we had our 112-pounder in the lineup, the outcome may have been different."

Mlsna was been nursing the flu and wasn't able to wrestle.

Belleville will return to the mats tomorrow, hosting

Plymouth Salem for their next Suburban 8 test. The Tigers clashed with area rival Romulus on Tuesday.

They're a 2-man team

A two-man swimming team? That's what Glenn's Tom Bird and Garden City East's Mark Blanchard could become if the two ever teamed up on one team. Bird and Blanchard hold down the top times for seven of the nine individual events in the area and it's been some time since any two area swimmers could boast that accomplishment. Bird cards the top area times for the 200-yard freestyle (1:53.5), the 50-yard freestyle (23.4), the 100-yard freestyle (52.2) and the 500-yard freestyle (5:13.0). Blanchard, who got off to a late start because of a teachers' strike in Garden City is atop the 200-yard individual medley (2:08.5), the 100-yard backstroke (59.9) and the 100-yard breaststroke (1:06.2). He shares the lead for the 100-yard butterfly (58.8) with Cherry Hill's Rick Kogelschatz.

MEANWHILE, Belleville's 200-yard relay medley relay (1:48.2) and diver Arlo Liebler own two of the remaining three events while Cherry Hill's freestyle relay team is the one to catch in the area. The area times are compiled by Cherry Hill Coach - PA 2-5900 - Jerry Pawloski.

WMHS dominates Romulus Invitational

Wayne Memorial, just two victories away from a perfect dual meet season, dominated the second running of the Romulus Wrestling Invitational held over the weekend.

Wayne parlayed five gold medals, one second, two thirds and an equal number of fourths into 98 points, out-distancing Clawson for the championship.

CLAWSON garnered 70½ points while Adrian was third with 61½ followed by Flint Northern (48½), Fenton (48), Mt. Clemens (47), Romulus (23½) and Alpena (23).

"We're on the track now," said Haney whose team needs to stop Fordson and Monroe in order to post its first perfect dual meet season. "The kids have worked hard and it's paying off."

What about Wayne's chances in the state Class A finals? "We do things one at a time," commented the Wayne coach. "We have a couple of dual meets and a league meet ahead of us first."

PAUL GOOSBY picked up a gold medal and his 104th victory as he decided Romulus' Lamar Sandusky in the finals of the 108-pound class for his first place. Teammates Bob Colaianne (141), Kevin Rize (158), Rick Hislop (170) and Sid Parr (188) also took first for Wayne.

Wayne's Gary Pate was forced to settle for a second place when Clawson's strong 115-pound entry, Chris Sade, decided the Wayne senior in 1:16.

Wayne also had third places in Mark Ellis (122) and Larry Michalik (129) while Rick Pittman (135) and Doug Cunningham (148) finished fourth.

Sade also was awarded the Most Pins Trophy as he amassed three victories by falls in an elapsed time of 10:51.

ROMULUS also had two other medalists. Sandusky, who came the nearest to winning the gold and finished runnerup in the 108 pound class, was joined by Rick Morrison and Ed Abbott in the medalist circle.

South team falls to Parkers

Some bad breaks and some good competition were all it took to put an end to South swimming team's six meet winning streak as the Tigers fell prey to Allen Park South, 42-34 in junior high league action.

"That's the best team we've seen all year," said Coach John Stoeitn. "The meet was closer than the score indicates, going down the last relay."

RELAY. "The flu took its toll of team members, not everyone was feeling up to par. There were, however, many good performances."

Howard Renton placed first in the 100 individual medley at 1:06.2, losing out on a judge's decision. Teammate Phil Burger placed third at the same 1:06.2, a mere 7-10 of a second out of fourth place.

Tom Rizzo looked to be a sure winner in the 50-yard freestyle in 25.5 with Terry Caves placing just behind him at 25.7.

Unfortunately, the official awarded first place to Steve Carlson of Allen Park, clocking an identical 25.7 to that of Caves.

Burger then came back to take the 50 butterfly in 27.8 with Chris Renton placing third at 30.6. The 100 free saw all four finishers going under one minute, with Terry Caves and Russ Bearance both splitting 58.6.

HOWARD RENTON broke his own school record in the 100 back at 1:05.2. Dean Girard placed third in the 100 yard breaststroke at 1:17.5, his best ever.

Allen Park went 1-2 in the breaststroke with a 1:08.7 and a 1:09.9, times comparable with high school swimmers.

"We saw a lot of close races with our depth holding us in," said Stoeitn. "Hindsight being 20-20, I can see where we could've picked up some more points. But on a whole, the kids looked tough."

South will take their 6-1 record on the road to swim a much improved Haston team Wednesday.

MEANWHILE, North tuned up for its confrontation with South Junior High, sweeping past Marshall Junior High, 46-30.

Taking seven out of 10 first place finishes, the Vikings turned in many strong performances, some, surprisingly, coming in exhibitions. The duo of Mike Stoeitn and Ted Wisniewski went 1-2 in the 200 yard freestyle with times of 2:17.3 and 2:39.0, respectively.

Following them in the 100 back were the 1-2 combination of Ron Gott (1:17.2) and Jeff Bullock (1:26.8).

Bullock then came back to swim his best split ever in the winning 400 free relay at 1:12.4.

Joe Thomas placed first in the 100 IM at 1:12.5, his personal best.

Many impressive times were turned by swimmers going exhibition races. Scott Hennells clocked a 25.8 in the 50 yard freestyle and then watched teammate Karen Dyer go 1:31.7 in the 100 back. Also turning in good jobs were freestyler Terry Groves and diver Dru Strobel.

"We've got a tough meet coming up this week," said Coach Frank Musser, "but the kids are looking forward to our meet with South on February 18th. Right now we're building - up our momentum."

With their season record now even at 3-3, the Vikings' next opponent will be Southgate.

Belleville, playing some of its finest basketball in recent years, jolted their league rivals and continued to win their next two games to force Plymouth Salem into a showdown for first place.

Lee Goodney doesn't know why Lady Luck has finally decided to join his team, but he's surely not going to ask her to leave.

Goodney and the New Boston Huron cagers climbed up into fifth place in the conference by winning a heart-stopping 61-60 victory over Monroe Jefferson Friday night.

It was the Chiefs' fourth win in 10 starts and that's more league wins they have had in the last two previous league seasons.

BUT THE decision almost went the other way as Huron blew a 10 point lead with two minutes left in the game. Jefferson threw a zone press at the Chiefs the last eight minutes and forced several turnovers which helped the host come within one point of tying the score.

With 10 seconds left, Huron's Don Bennett sank a layup to put the Chiefs off in front by three. Huron let their hosts through for the last basket to make sure they didn't get a three-point play.

In that last period Jefferson's Kevin Caldwell, playing with two broken fingers, scored 10 of his game high 25 points.

HURON jumped out in front 12-6 in the first period, and held on at intermission 28-26. They widened the gap by outscoring their rivals 16-13 in the third period, then fell apart in the last stanza.

"We blew our pose in the last period," said Goodney, "and this is the first time when we had the lead and had to hold on to it. I hope we learned something through this experience."

Scott Bertin and Keith Frazier split 32 points for the Chiefs.

'Kitchen Belles' play in unique return show

Residents of the Van Buren Convalescent Center in Van Buren Township recently were entertained to a repeat song and musical performance, by the "Kitchen Belles" of Belleville.

The band, composed of members of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club and organized a year ago by club officials, plays instruments completely made of kitchen utensils.

Last Thursday afternoon the band made a return engagement to the Van Buren Convalescent Center and presented its winter musical program.

Members play kazoos, washboards, bread box drums and horns made of various kitchen utensils, with a piano accompaniment.

At the convalescent center, band members sang songs from the Gay '90s which were brightened by a skit with a real 2-woman "old gray mare" pulling a shay as the band sang "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet."

The popular winter songs included "Frostie the Snowman," performed while a 2-ball "snowman" (played by Myrtle Gasilo) frolicked about. The same program was presented for the Canton Center Senior Citizens Club on Friday afternoon after the band had enjoyed their hospitality at a potluck dinner at noon.

Band director is Myrtle Wells, who also is the president of the Belleville Senior Citizens Club.

At the club's recent weekly meeting, committee chairmen for 1975 were appointed. Corsages were pinned on the committee heads as they were announced. They include:

Marina Hartwig, program chairman; Harold Cullin, visitation to hospital and shut-ins; Nellie VanWormer, trips and tours; Hazel Schaal, monthly news sheet for meetings; Elizabeth Leschinsky, cards to sick members and friends; Bill Moser, bingo prizes; Myrtle Gasilo and Alice Hightower, birthday parties; Reba Henry, invocation; Leona Agge and Edna Moser, flag salute; Viola McNally, register at meetings; Jennie Gras and Minnie Schultz, potluck suppers; Helen Essex, kitchen supplies; and Elizabeth Hunter, publicity.

Lloyd Freeman, who has been handling the public address system and providing background music at meetings, now is resting at home after a hospital stay, it was reported.

The Belleville Senior Citizens Club welcomes new members. It meets at 6:30 p.m. each Thursday at Edgemont Elementary School in Belleville.

Panel gathers rec plan data

The Van Buren Township Recreation Commission is gathering information for the commission's proposed Comprehensive Recreation Plan.

According to commission secretary Eunice Kause, the plan will be geared toward determining the future recreational needs of the township.

Included in the plan will be proposed sites, needs of the community and what direction the recreation programs should take.

"Keeping in mind that our population will be growing, the township must provide a plan to satisfy the recreational needs of a growing community," said Larry Boelter, commission chairman. "Quality recreation can be ours if it is provided through careful planning as a result of a study of the public needs."

The commission acts as an advising commission to the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees on matters concerning recreation.

The commission recently completed work on a new park ordinance. The ordinance already has received the unanimous approval of the township trustees.

Members of the community are invited to attend the commission's meetings held on the third Thursday of each month at the Township Hall, located at 46425 Tyler Road.

"Community input is imperative for development of a good working plan," Mrs. Kause added.

People with suggestions for future development should attend these meetings or contact one of the commission members: Ken Askew, Fred Domen, William Chizmar, Robert Tontalo, Mrs. Kause or Boelter.

School to continue program

Because of the reported success of Gordonier Elementary School's initial "Mini-class" day, the administration at the Romulus-based school plans to conduct similar weekly sessions.

The school's first mini-class day held on Jan. 29 involved every student in the school except kindergarteners, according to principal Dan Murray, who added that the next mini-class program will be held from 2 to 3 p.m. on Feb. 19 and hopefully every week thereafter.

The first mini-class day saw seven boys learning all about small animal trapping with Hoy Jones, school custodian, at a nearby creek; teacher Mary Frank taught a group of 13 boys and girls in the third to sixth grades how to crochet; and teacher Cheryl Van Allen taught crewelstitchery in an adjacent classroom.

The mini-class subjects ranged from old-fashioned games to electricity, from cooking to general business and from foreign languages to arts and crafts.

"Everyone took part: teachers, custodians, teacher guides, secretaries, social workers, cooks and of course the students," Murray said. "The only complaint that was heard was that there wasn't enough time."

District workshop now in 8th year

The interinstitutional workshop sponsored by the Wayne County Intermediate School District is in its eighth year of cooperative educational programming among local school districts and universities.

Seventeen schools in Wayne County have teams of teachers and administrators who are attempting to humanize their education programs through a cooperative in-service effort called the interinstitutional workshop.

The Wayne County Intermediate School District consultants provide this service without additional compensation.

Medicare is reopened to those who missed

People who didn't sign up for medicare medical insurance when they first became eligible or who have cancelled the protection once can enroll now through March 31 at any Social Security Administration office.

Medicare medical insurance is offered automatically to people who reach 65 and are eligible for social security benefits, and to disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to monthly social security disability benefits for 24 consecutive months or more. Nine out of 10 people eligible are enrolled in the program.

But some people decline the protection when they're first eligible. And some sign up once and cancel later. They can enroll in the first three months of any year.

The medical insurance helps pay doctor bills and other medical expenses and is the voluntary part of medicare funded by individual premiums and federal general revenue. The basic premium is $6.70 a month through June 1975.

People who decline medicare medical insurance and delay signing up for more than a year pay a higher premium. People who sign up and cancel later can re-enroll only once.

People 65 and over who are not eligible for social security benefits can apply at any Social Security Administration office and get medicare hospital insurance by paying a premium. The basic premium is $36 a month through June 1975, and they must also sign up for medical insurance.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE OPENS — The Huron District Council of the Boy Scouts of America has launched its 1975 Sustaining Membership Enrollment campaign. This year's goal is $5,400. Leo M. Kalota (left), Manufacturers National Bank second vice-president, is chairman

Boy Scout campaign pushes for members

The Huron District of the Boy Scouts of America has launched its 1975 Sustaining Membership Enrollment campaign.

The annual effort this year is being headed by Leo M. Kalota, a Romulus leader and presently second vice-president with Manufacturers National Bank managing the bank's Romulus branch.

Kalota also spearheaded the 1974 campaign which ended with the Huron District reaching 170 percent of its goal. This year's objective is to raise a total of $5,400.

Huron District scouts will be asking individuals, parents, and scouting units to participate in the 1975 campaign with their financial support.

Huron District serves the communities of Romulus, Belleville and New Boston. Also in the district boundaries are the townships of Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren.

About one-half of the funds needed for the yearly operation raised by the Sustaining Membership Program, foundation gifts and other programs is aimed at Friends of Scouting who wish to participate in scouting in a financial way.

The money is used by the council to support the scouting program in packs and troops through training of adults, camping programs, activities and events such as camporees, award and recognition programs, Kalota said.

The money raised also helps to pay for the services of full time professional staff members serving each of the council's 23 districts.

A sustaining membership is available to any interested adult upon payment of a membership fee, which may be renewed annually.

The individual is entitled to support scouting according to his interests or ability.

Vets flock to collect bonus

Vietnam veterans are flocking to Secretary of State offices throughout Western Wayne County to apply for bonuses up to $600.

Applications became available Thursday and since then thousands have been distributed at offices in Wayne, Westland, Garden City, Belleville and Romulus.

The application must be notarized once it is complete, and notaries are available at all of the facilities free of charge, spokesmen for each of the offices said.

The bonus is the result of a proposal approved by voters last November to allow the state to borrow up to $205 million to provide the bonus to any veteran who served in the military between Jan. 1, 1961 and Sept. 1, 1973.

To be eligible for the benefits the veteran must have completed at least 190 days of honorable service or have died during that time. He also must have been a resident of Michigan for at least six months prior to induction to get the Michigan bonus.

Combat veterans will receive $600 and non-combat veterans are entitled to $15 per month for each month served, with the total amount not to exceed $450.

In the case of deceased veterans, the bonuses would go to their beneficiaries. Beneficiaries of those dying from service-related causes will receive the difference between $450 and the amount already received by the veteran.

The bonus is not taxable and can be collected any time up until June 30, 1980.

The Secretary of State offices in the Western Wayne County area that have applications and notaries available are located at:

The Metro Place Mall on Michigan Avenue in Wayne; Westland Center at the corner of Wayne and Warren roads in Westland; 29211

Ford Road in Garden City; 36539 Goddard in Romulus; and 574 W. Columbia, at the corner of High Street, in Belleville.

Trustee Kelly presented his Rubbish Pickup Study Committee Report for Van Buren Estate to the Board.

Motion Kelly, support York, to implement a plan to pick up rubbish on a weekly basis for the entire Township in the most efficient way. A long discussion followed. Motion failed 4 to 2. (Kelly & York voted yes) Trustee Domen spoke against the motion noting that capital out-lay & Maintenance were not included in the report. Trustee Kureth stated he was against the motion because he just received the report the day before and did not have enough time to review & study the report. Also, he stated the people voted the proposal down on Nov. 5, they did not want the added expense, and the study does not guarantee no increase in cost. Clerk Cullin noted that the study showed there would have to be Ordinance changes and that the study was done in a subdivision and would not be practical for parts of the Township where houses are a mile apart. There were 3 people on the Committee, Thomas Kelly, George Roberts and Kathy Howard. Mrs. Howard stated that the report was just for Van Buren Estates and that they approved the study as submitted. Attorney Axe stated that you cannot have a special Ordinance for a Special Assessment District. Clerk Cullin said we should table and revise the rubbish Ordinance first. Trustee Maton suggested a 60 day trial period for weekly rubbish collection in the subdivision. Motion Kureth, support Domen, to table the study for further study. Motion carried 4 to 2.

Attorney Axe stated he asked the County on what basis they were charging $25.00 filing fee for sewer left stations and he had no answer yet but would bring the information to the Board at a later meeting.

Motion Maton, support Kureth, to approve the Resolution to include Van Buren Township in the Wayne County Resolution to declare Wayne Co. an urban area. Carried.

Motion Cullin, support Domen, to refer the SEMCOG resolution re: Water Quality Planning, to the Township attorney for his advice and bring to a later meeting. Carried.

Motion Maton, support Cullin, to approve the request of Wayne Disposal, Inc. for an extension of his fill and sand removal permit for 3 years as per request submitted. Carried.

Motion Cullin, support Kelly, to update the Rubbish Ordinance so that the study made in Van Buren Estates will not be lost. Carried.

Trustee Kureth informed the Board that its time to renew our Flynn Oxygen contract. Also, he stated work is going on in the Fire Dept. radio system study and will possibly have ready next meeting.

Motion Maton, support Kelly, to accept the Police Dept. Annual report as presented. Carried.

Engineer Kelly submitted the first of his monthly engineering reports.

Motion Kelly, support York, to approve the Recreation Dept. recommendation to accept the Belleville Community Players as part of the Recreation Program and the proposed budget as submitted. Carried.

Motion Kelly to adopt Robert Rules of Order as our formal procedure for conducting meetings. Motion lost due to no support on the motion. Motion Cullin, support Kureth, to ask for a committee of 2 or 3 to work up a set of rules. Motion carried 5 to 1.

Another discussion was held with the citizens in the audience in regards to rubbish pick-up and road conditions. Mrs. K. Howard asked to be put on the next meetings agenda. It was stated that the Township has 3 rubbish trucks, 1 of which is an old one and used for a spare. We have 3 men per truck. One-half of the Township is picked up each week. Mrs. Howard asked for a maximum figure of cost for weekly rubbish pick up in Van Buren Estate. Motion Cullin, support Domen, to set $10.00 as an estimated outside maximum cost per residence for a Special Assessment District. Roll call vote was taken. Motion carried 7 to 0.

Motion Maton, support Kelly, to pay the bills as per voucher lists submitted. Carried.

At 'The Number'

Crisis training class to start

The City of Belleville's crisis-counseling center, The Number, will begin a new training series on Feb. 13. The director of The Number, Kathy Calvillo, said there are 10 three-to-four-hour training sessions in each series and each trainee is given a training manual that contains most of the wide range of information a counselor has to know.

The training group has two trainers: Mrs. Calvillo and another professional from the community.

"Past experience has proved this one of the best training tools," the director said.

"We are asking that those who may be interested in being a crisis counselor call

The Number at 699-2039 and place their name on the sign-up list. The volunteer on duty will then give you the time and place of the first meeting," Mrs. Calvillo added.

The following is an outline of the 10 sessions:

Session 1: intake, counseling attitudes and philosophy; Session 2: some general data, drug pharmacology, VD, suicidology and related matters; Session 3-5: counseling skills, crisis intervention methodology; Session 6-9: in-service training, the trainee will be working on the crisis line with one-to-one supervision by an experienced counselor. He or she not only will take calls but receive more extensive data on drugs and VD, again on a one-to-one basis; Session 10: evaluation and testing.

The crisis-counseling center is open at noon on weekdays and at 2 p.m. weekends and holidays and closes at midnight Sunday through Thursday and at 2 a.m. Friday and Saturday nights. The crisis number is 699-2039.

Mrs. Calvillo said the center receives an average of 150 calls a month with problems ranging from drug abuse (including alcohol) to parent-child conflicts, marital conflicts, legal problems, VD, birth control, suicide, unwanted pregnancy and sexual problems.

The center currently has 60 volunteers who have received extensive training on all these subjects so they will be prepared to answer any call coming in on the crisis lines.

Mobile home proposal to be given 2nd look

A Mobile Home Commission bill which failed to pass the state Legislature during its last session has been re-introduced by State Rep. Gary M. Owen (D-Ypsilanti).

The bill, introduced by House Speaker Bobby D. Crim (D-Davison) last year, passed the House but died in the Senate.

"The enormous growth of the mobile home industry in Michigan has created a multitude of consumer and health problems in the mobile home industry," Owen said.

"Mobile home parks offer far too great potential for health hazards, unsafe construction and disregard for park residents' rights," he continued. "The proposed legislation represents the focal point of attempts to replace the outdated 1959 statute now in effect."

The bill would create a 9-member Mobile Home Commission within the Department of Commerce with the responsibility to license qualifying mobile home parks and revoke license violators, to prepare a Mobile Home Code setting health, safety and tenant rights standards and to oversee the administration and enforcement of the code by local governments.

The code would regulate density, licensing, layout, construction, operation and ownership of mobile homes and condominiums or cooperative parks.

Another provision not included in the bill last year would permit local units of government to pass ordinances to enact more stringent regulations.

Joint effort greeted by public acceptance

Acceptance by Romulus residents of a new combined educational and recreation program has been beyond initial expectations according to Romulus school officials.

The new program known as "Super Saturday" and its organization is a joint effort by the Romulus Recreation Department and the Romulus School District's community service division to provide recreation for youth in grades kindergarten through six.

More than 500 students have filed applications to enroll in the program's initial 8-week period that began on Saturday.

"We are simply overwhelmed by the number of enrollments so far received," said William Smith, director of community-school division.

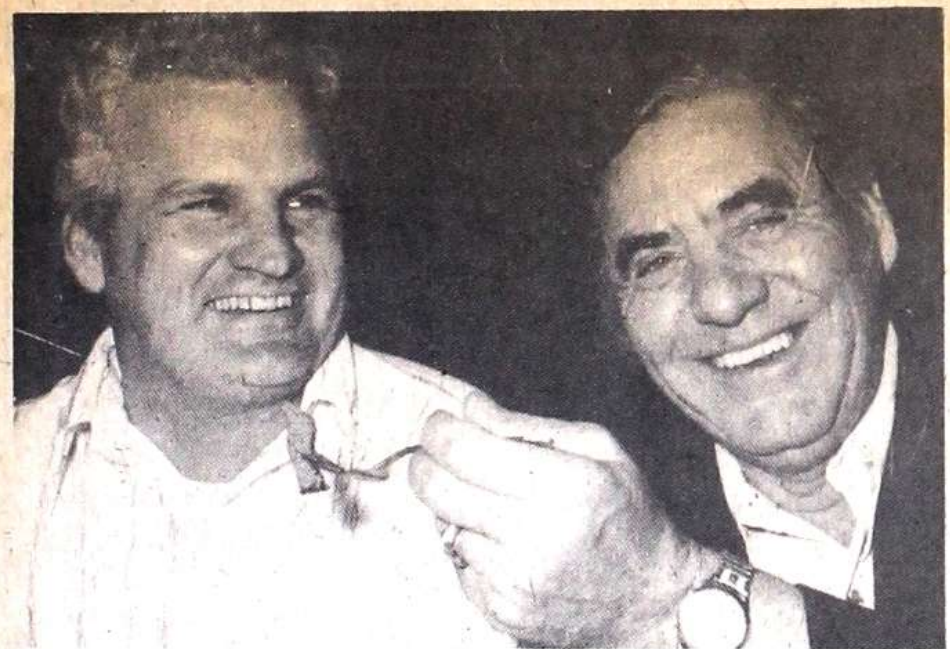

Smith added that enrollments for the first 8-week program are closed but still are being accepted for future programs.

Activities for Super

Saturday are held at the Romulus Senior High School and school bus transportation is available for city residents enrolled in the program.

Super Saturday sessions are held from 1 to 3 p.m. on Saturdays.

The cost for Super Saturday is $5 for the entire 8-week program. Registration forms are available at each elementary school in Romulus.

Set up in high school

Township gets library

Convenient winter and spring library service will, for the first time, now be provided for residents and students in Huron Township and the Huron School District.

School and township officials have completed a plan to pool financial and material resources and opened a jointly-operated library at Huron High School from 2:30 to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday.

"For the past few years the persons from the area have in essence been without a public library and residents have had to make lengthy drives to county library branches in surrounding cities," said Roger Benner, community school director.

A branch of the Wayne County Federated Library System had operated in New Boston Elementary School for six hours each week and cost the people of Huron Township $8,000 annually.

"We had a library that was open only twice a week," said Clerk Mary Lou Carey. "For the money we were paying, it wasn't worth it."

Township officials had hoped to put those funds to work to merge with the district and open a branch at the high school last fall.

However, "the bills continued to come in and we could not afford to pay for library use outside the township and pay the start up costs for opening a new library at the high school,"

Mrs. Carey said. "To get the project off the ground this year, the township is applying for grant money to hire a full time librarian."

The township then would provide the librarian for afternoon and evening hours, with the school district staffing the high school facility during the day.

Benner added that the facility is needed for the schools' Adult Education Program, which enrolled more than 8,000 students this school year.
